

March 19, 20 & 21, 2008

Fairmont Hot Springs Resort (near Butte, Montana)

2 full days of technical training for the landscape, irrigation and grounds maintenance professional!

These are just some of the class topics being offered:

Turf

Insects: Identification and Control of Trees and Shrubs
Soil Sampling: Interpretation and Application
Native Grasses for Turf Application
Slow Release Nitrogen: Application and Release Rates

Seed Genetics and Selection
Weed Control in Ornamental Beds
Athletic Field Painting and Game Day Preparation
Best Field Management Practices – Baseball
General Athletic Field Management

Selection and Use of Pesticide Application Equipment
Carroll College: “Field of the Year”- a Case Study
Turf Diseases Identification and Control
Wetting Agents, Rehydrating Soils
Erosion Control
Adjuvants: The Mystery Explained
Athletic Field Wear Index

Irrigation

Gasketed Pipe and Fittings Installation
Troubleshooting Workshop
Introduction to Irrigation Design
Irrigation Systems Basics
Basic Irrigation Design

Grounding and Electrical Workshop
Irrigation Construction Workshop
Water Conservation and the Contractor
Efficient Irrigation Workshop

Irrigation System Installation
Sub-Surface Irrigation for Turf

Continuing education credits will be available

Turf University is a rare training opportunity for every member of your team...laborers, crew leaders, foremen, supervisors, owners or division managers!

Class registration will be arriving by mail in early February 2008!

Make your hotel reservations today!

Call the Fairmont Hotel at 1-800-332-3272

(Ask for the Turf University rate)

Call Susan Whittmeyer for your questions at (406) 245-1490