

2008 Brick In Architecture Awards Announce Call-For-Entries

Let your members get the national recognition they deserve for their breakthrough projects

Time is running out for your members to submit their best work to the 2008 Brick In Architecture Awards! As a local ASLA chapter serving landscape architects in your area, we encourage your members enter their projects before the April 30 deadline at:

www.gobrick.com/ArchitectureAwards

As the largest and most prestigious juried competition of its kind, the Brick In Architecture Awards showcase the finest non-residential work in clay paving and face brick from landscape architects around the country. Entries can be submitted in one or more of the following categories:

- Non-Residential Paving & Landscape Architecture
- Commercial *
- Educational / Schools **
- Health Care Facilities
- House of Worship
- Municipal / Government

* Includes retail, banking, restaurants, hotels, office/corporate buildings, town centers, sporting facilities, theater/arts centers, parking garages, etc.

** Includes residence halls & academic/administrative buildings

Best In Class winners will receive national recognition through a special Brick In Architecture insert in the December issue of Architectural Record! Other winners will be listed in the insert as well as be featured in Brick News Online and on BIA's Brick Photo Gallery. Don't miss the chance for your members to receive national recognition.

The 2008 awards competition will be conducted entirely online. For complete information on eligibility, submission requirements, and judging, visit www.gobrick.com/AwardsInfo.
